

2017
Classics and Chrome Car & Motorcycle Show
SUCCESS!

On behalf of the Classics and Chrome Committee, we extend our sincerest thanks for supporting this year's show at Machesney Park Mall on May 6 and 7.

We appreciated our generous sponsors: WIFR 23, Alpine Bank, Dickerson & Nieman Realtors, Townsquare Media, WROK, Q98.5, The Eagle 96.7, Mulford Dental Group, Blackhawk Bank, Rockford Linear Motion, and Illinois Bank & Trust, and NAPA Auto Parts.

Our vendors, who have supported this show since its beginning in 2001, were again a great feature to this year's show: Hugh Ruthven, The Finish Line and Classics and Chrome Wearables. Along with Eric Schroder from Allstate Insurance, Jack Horner from Work Light USA, The Girl Scouts, Central Christian Church, and Anthony Sanders from Simply Perfection Auto Detailing were new vendors who showcased their businesses to the show's participants.

Of course, we must extend heartfelt thanks to the car owners who share their beautiful vehicles, and spend most of the weekend talking with the thousands of patrons that attend the Classics and Chrome Car Show. We continuously hear how much our community enjoys seeing these amazing vehicles, but also enjoy talking with the owners and learning the history of each vehicle.

Over one hundred volunteers are needed to make this show run flawlessly for two full days. We recognize the Keith School faculty and staff, parents, students, friends of Keith, and alumni who donated their time to volunteer during the weekend. Special thanks to the Mustang Club for helping set-up, clean-up, and volunteer throughout the weekend.

Classics and Chrome would not be possible without the show's organizers. Selection and Steering committee members who have guided the success of the show for many years include:

Vincent Zammuto
Mark Lindman
Darrel Burnett
Randy Krup

Gary Carlson
Bill Hoff
